

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) and Recognition of Current Competencies (RCC)

Pre- Assessment

Do I meet RPL requirements?

I am not sure of the best pathway – RPL or not?

Are my qualifications and skills current?

If you answered yes to any of the above questions, you can apply for a RPL – Pre Assessment

What is a RPL Pre-Assessment?

One of our assessors will review your current qualifications/ evidence and advise the appropriate pathway for you to gain your qualification

I am not sure what RPL / RCC means and does it apply to me?

Click here to review our RPL /RCC information pages

Who can apply for pre-assessment?

Everyone

How Long does it take to complete?

The RPL Pre-Assessment can take up to 90 days depending on the evidence submitted.

What does it cost?

An RPL Pre-Assessment has a non-refundable fee of $200.00. If you decide to enrol in a course with us, we will deduct the $200 from the enrolment fee.

Note: Course Enrolment must be completed within 30 days of RPL-Pre Assessment determination being notified.

Easy as ...

How do I apply for a Pre-Assessment?

Its easy as ABC

A – Complete the application form

B – Attach your current evidence and payment fee

C – Submit to the assessors

When can I submit my RPL evidence?

All evidence must be submitted together with the RPL Pre-Assessment application form. We cannot accept any further evidence after the application has been received.

How do I apply?

An application form can be downloaded from our website www.aboveandbelow.com.au

